

God's Presence Brings Peace

A Sermon on Psalm 139 in Pictures

LORD, You
Searched Me
and You Know

LORD, You
Searched Me
and You Know

God searches us out for our Good –
to bring us Peace

It is You Who Know when I
sit and rise

God who knows when we sit and rise, be with us as we think through important decisions in our lives and give us peace of mind knowing that you walk with us as we stand up to act on decisions we've made with your help.

My path and my lair You
winnow

My path and
my lair You
winnow

God who knows our secrets, be our secret place of peace, where we can view ourselves with your eyes of grace and love.

Knowledge is too wondrous
for me

God, give us peace in knowing enough to know that it is good to be small

Where can I
go from your spirit?

A dramatic landscape featuring a deep valley with a river, surrounded by dark, forested mountains under a cloudy sky. The text is overlaid in the upper center.

Next time you look at the clouds, acknowledge
God's presence with you

If I soar to the
heavens, You
are there...

If I soar to the
heavens, You
are there...

If I soar to the
heavens, You
are there...

When we are isolated from
everything else,
we are yet still in
the presence of
the one who fills
heaven and earth.

If I bed down
in Sheol—
there You are.

If I bed down
in Sheol—
there You are.

A lush garden scene with large rocks, ferns, and trees. A person in a green shirt and blue cap is looking at a rock formation. The scene is filled with vibrant green foliage and purple flowers. A tall green lamp post stands on the right side of the frame. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural.

God who is present with both the living and the dead, be present with all life threatened by the powers of death. May your peace be felt as rain on a parched earth and fertile moss on the dry, cracked body of our earth.

If I take wing
with the dawn....

God, as our children spread
their wings, may
you hide them
under your wings
and give them
peace.

If I dwell at
the ends of the sea...

If I dwell at
the ends of
the sea...

“What limitation
is God asking me
to be at peace
with?”

There, too,
your hand
leads me...

God, lead our children as they make significant life transitions – as they journey to new places and face new challenges, grant them your peace.

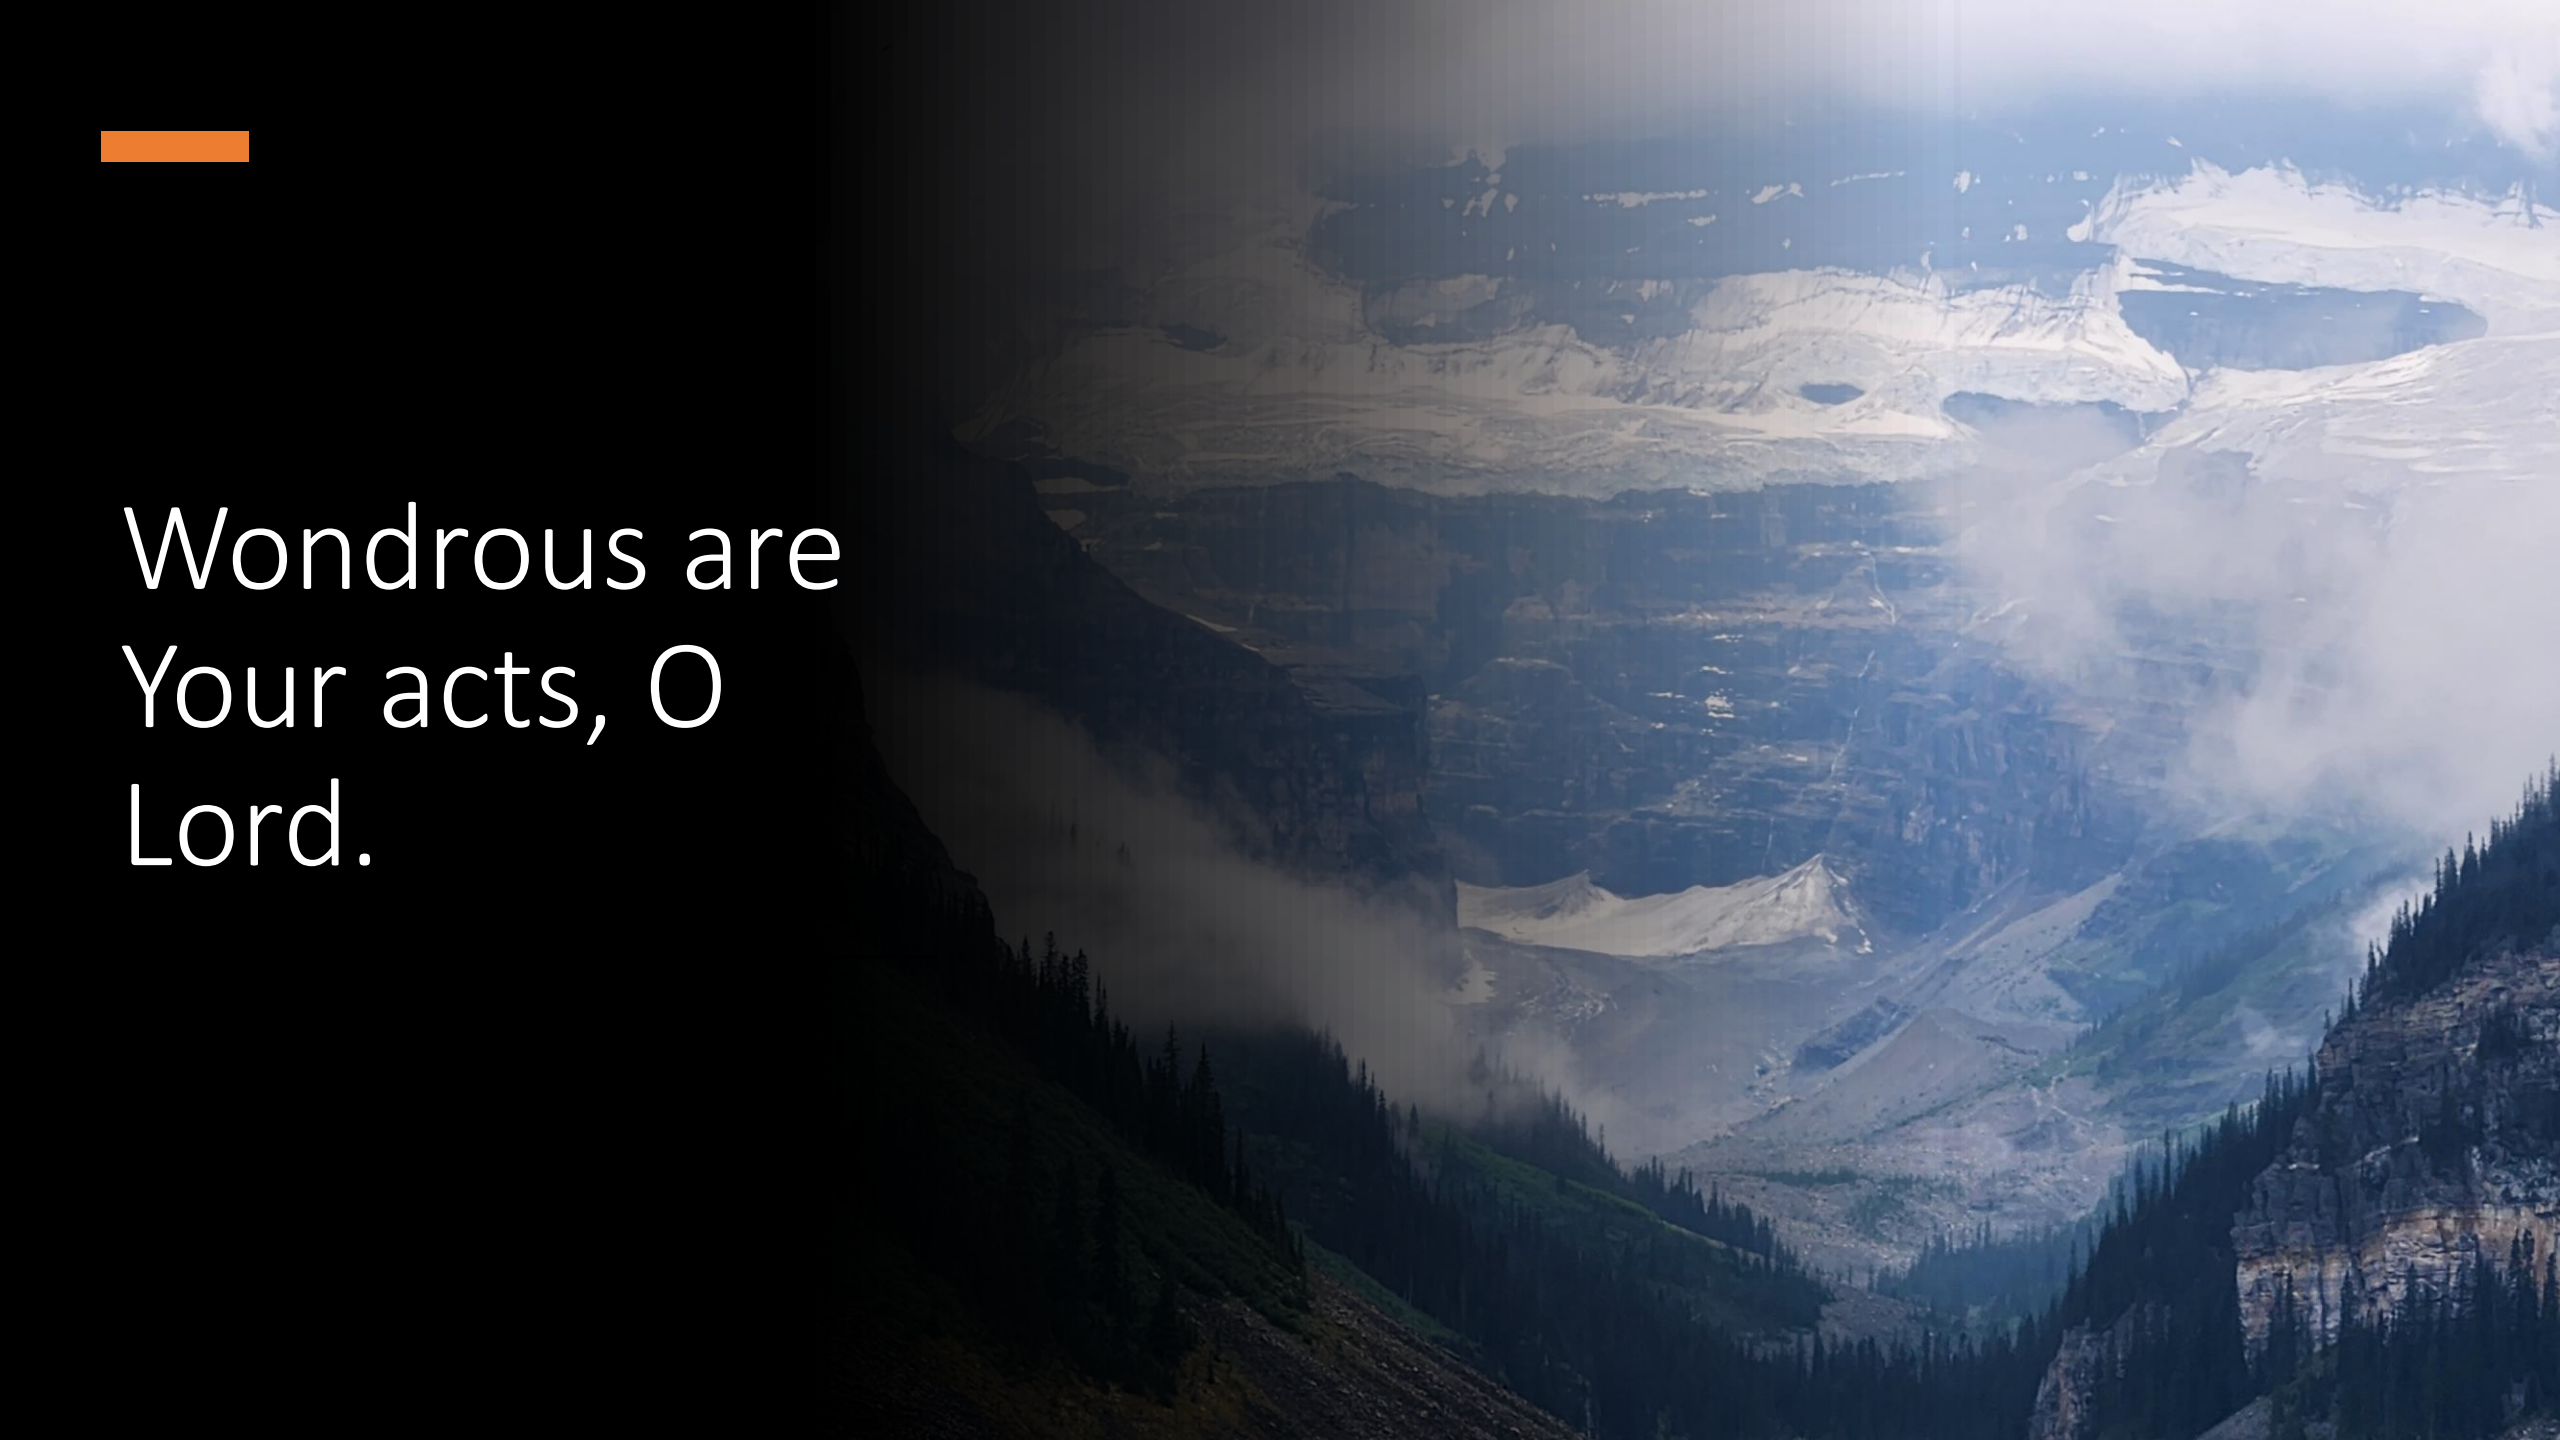

For you created
my innermost
parts, wove me
in my mother's womb...

take time this week to be at peace for a moment and
consider how God
not only created
back then but
creates and
enables life to exist in every moment.

Wondrous
are Your
acts...

Wondrous are
Your acts, O
Lord.

For Fun.....
